

2018 ANNUAL ELECTIONS

2018 Candidates for Board of Directors Elections

Hamit Aras: Center Point Dental Group (6544 El Cajon Boulevard)

Hamit has been in the College Area since 2010. Over the years, the area has improved and Hamit would like to contribute his time and ideas to continuing its success. His favorite aspect to the area are the different types of people and families he gets to encounter and looks forward to the chance to help serve the other businesses in the area.

Tyler Blair: The Washboard Laundry (6512 El Cajon Boulevard)

Tyler has owned his The Washboard Laundry for eight years and has been involved with the College Area Business District for nearly six of those years. The main reason he wants to continue serving on the Board is because he likes being involved with what's going on locally. It's important for him to work with others to make the College Area better overall. His favorite part of doing business in the College Area Business District is his experience with the other board members. He says that they all have unique experiences and interests. They work really well together and respect each other's thoughts and opinions.

Jon Dubensky: 2Point Digital Agency (6875 El Cajon Boulevard)

Jon founded 2Point in 2006 with the goal to provide custom digital work at an affordable price. Since then, 2Point has grown to a full-service digital agency offering high quality digital marketing campaigns to their clients. Jon has been to College Area Business District meetings as a non-member and believes his expertise garnered over twelve years of handling digital efforts for growing businesses, he can provide insight to help bring positive changes to the Business District.

Teri Featheringill: Featheringill Mortuary (6322 El Cajon Boulevard)

Featheringill Mortuary has been family owned and operated since 1962. Teri has been a Member of the College Area Business District for the past 15 years and enjoys being a part of an organization that makes a great difference in the condition and pleasure of the area. She has a lot of history and information to share and loves working with the business district and being aware of the changes and plans being made. She thinks The College Area has been a great neighborhood to have a business in over the years and would love to see it continue to grow into a thriving business district.

Rachel Gregg: San Diego State University (5500 Campanile Drive)

Rachel has worked at SDSU for nearly a year and has attended several of the College Area Business District Board Meetings as a Non-Member. She would like to serve on the board to help strengthen and grow the relationship between the business district and SDSU. If elected, her goal is to bring college students, residents, and business owners together to create a stronger sense of community.

Lai Hoang: Nail's Paradise & Spa (7032 El Cajon Boulevard)

Lai has experience running businesses for over 15 years and enjoys assisting and representing minorities and women. She would like to serve on the College Area Business District's Board of Directors to work with other small businesses in order to build new relationships and support the business community.

Danielle King: Fitness is My Sickness (7202 El Cajon Boulevard)

After owning her business for three years, Danielle is ready to serve on the Board for the College Area Business District. She has a desire to take a bigger role in the community and bring awareness to health and wellness and the vitality of comradery and teamwork. Danielle also believes there is much opportunity for business growth for the district and wants to be a part of that growth.

Nicole Lewis: Platt College (6250 El Cajon Boulevard)

As a native of San Diego and SDSU alum, Nicole has great knowledge of The College Area. She has been involved with our Board for nearly a year and wants to continue serving this area. She says that the Board is a valuable resource—it's an excellent way to collaborate and contribute to the community. Her favorite part of working in the College Area Business District is the people. She respects and admires the business and property owners because they are innovative and dedicated to the area.

Alonso Nunez: Little Fish Comic Book Studio (6822 El Cajon Boulevard)

Alonso founded Little Fish Comic Book Studio in January of 2012 and helped it transition to a nonprofit in November of 2016. Originally starting in Ocean Beach, but moved to the College Area since 2016. Alonso has attended past Board Meetings as a non-board member, which sparked his interest in serving on the board. Alonso has experienced some of the organization's efforts and wishes to contribute his skills to these efforts. In recent years, he has seen the area grow, in progressive ways. He is looking forward to the opportunity to serve the business community to continue that progressive growth.

Lillian Palmer: Commercial Property Owner (6818 -6824 El Cajon Boulevard)

As a second-generation property owner, Lillian is aware of the history of El Cajon Boulevard and has seen and been a part of its positive transformation. Recognizing the importance of being proactive in the College Area Business District, she has been a Board Member since 2003. As a property owner, she is committed to the future of The College Area and will continue to bring her experience in business, marketing, and event planning to the future of the district.

Bruce Robertson: College Avenue Baptist Church (4747 College Avenue)

College Avenue Baptist Church has served the area for over 75 years. Bruce cares deeply about the College Area businesses and as a 15-year Member, he would like to continue using his knowledge of the area and the church's resources to further the goals of the business district and continue improving the business community.

Paul Russo: Campus Plaza Shopping Center (6155 El Cajon Boulevard)

Paul has served on the Board for 15 years, with the past 6 years as Board President. He has seen the area transform and would like to continue working with the COlege Area Business District's Board to continue to assist and guide the potential for growth and development in the business district.

Mike Trunzo: Blessed Sacrament Church (4540 El Cerrito Drive)

Blessed Sacrament Church has been in the area for 70 years and Mike has been serving on the Board since the district was first formed. He believes in service to the community and the Board allows him to help serve and improve the area. His favorite part of being a part of the College Area Business District is the diversity of the areas since it is one of the most diverse in San Diego County.

Will Remsbottom: Scrimshaw Coffee (5542 El Cajon Boulevard)

For nearly a year, Will has seen the progressive changes happening in the College Area. His passionate toward creative changes and wants to collaborate with other business owners in the area to continue improving the business atmosphere in the area. He has attended Board Meetings as a Non-Member. Will has also contributed to the Hospitality Committee and now wants to contribute further by becoming a Member of the Board.